

Grace in the Bush

Words by David Martin

Music by Wendy Hiscocks

An easygoing tarantella ♩. = 96

Bass

Piano

pp mp p mp sempre

5 mp pp mp 2 2 pp (mp)

10 p sfz pp mf secco mp

17 mp The tra-vel-ling par-son mf p sfz 8 mp

* LH melody with a sinister edge, like two contra bassoons

22

— took his seat. The 28

free se-lec-tor— and his wife Drove off—the flies, took fork and knife and

33

si - - lent - ly cut up their meat.

39

The par-son,-

47 look - ing at his plate, A flick - er - ing smile a - thwart his pp

52

face, — Asked if they e - ver said a Grace Be - fore

mf p mf

8-----

60

they sat down and ate?

p mf

66

The bush - man stroked his beard. 'It's true, we

p p